

Asalamu alaikum- everyone
Welcome to year 1 assembly- Yusuf
Surah Al Fatiha- Yusuf

As good Muslims we should look after the elderly. - Zain

We are reminded in the Quran and by the Prophet SAW about looking after -
Hashim

Children, women, the elderly, the sick and the orphans.

Easa, Abdur Razzak, Sara S, Zakariyah, Laila

Scene one: Helping the old

Narrator: One day there was an old lady struggling with her shopping. A young Muslim boy offers to help her. Fahad

Boy: Where are you going dear lady? Would you like some help.

Old lady: I live not too far from across the road.

Boy: well you look like you need some help. Let me help you by carrying your shopping. I am going that way.

Old lady: well that is so kind of you, I don't mind so long as you are not Muslim. These Muslims are so mean and horrible.

Narrator: The boy carries her shopping without saying anything. Fahad

Boy: her you go. Do not want me to help you with anything else before I go.

Old Lady: thank you so much but before you go tell me what made you help me.

Boy: because I am Muslim and Allaah likes those who help people in need.

Old lady: you're a Muslim but you're so kind I thought Muslims were horrible people. Please tell me more about your religion I want to learn.

Boy: insha Allaah I will.

Narrator: the next day the boy went round the old ladies house with leaflets about Islam. He would visit her every week and then she became a Muslim, Alhamdulillah. Ibraheem

Zaidah, Musa,

The Moral of the story is:

Respect, help and aid the elderly, you can make a huge difference. Qasim

The Prophet (SAW) said, "He is not of us who does not have mercy on young children, nor honour the elderly"

(Al-Tirmidhi)

Maryam

Scene 2: Honouring parents

Narrator: A Mother holding her baby one night. Sara A

Mother: don't cry baby, I'm making your milk

(Feeds baby puts the baby to sleep. Baby cries in the middle of the night.)

Ibraheem

Mother: I'm getting up. (Holds baby.) Oh Allah protect my child from shaytan ameen.

Narrator: 20 years go by and the mother becomes terribly sick. Fatema is now in university. Ubaydullah

Mother is in bed sick.

Mother: I am so thirsty. Oh Fatema!

Fatema: Mum I late for a lecture. I have to go. (Rushes out of the house.)

Mother: gets up and falls.

Fatema: (comes home). Oh mum what happened?

Mother: I got up to get water and I fell.

Fatema: astaghfullah, I have neglected you. Please forgive me mum.

Sumayyah A, Summyyah E,

"Your Lord has commanded that you worship none but Him, and that you be kind to your parents. Hannah

If one of them or both of them reach old age with you, do not say to them a word of disrespect, or scold them, but say a generous word to them. Hafsa

Allah says in surah Al Isra: And act humbly to them in mercy, and say, 'My Lord, have mercy on them, since they cared for me when I was small.' Hajer

(Quran 17:23-24)

So be kind to the elderly.

Remember if Allaah wills you will be old one day. Qasim

Our Lord grant us forgiveness. Have mercy on us. You are our Protector. Grant us victory over the unbelievers. Ameen. Ibraheem.

Thank you for listening to our presentation- Yusuf

Asalaamu alaikum Warahmatullahi Wabarakatu- everyone.
